

GO ASK THE PEOPLE

If you want to know which paper in Richmond is the paper of the people, go out among them and ask the people. They will tell you it is The Daily News, because it has always stood up bravely for the cause of the people in every thing that ever came up, and it is dependable, and they know it, and they will tell you so.

SENATE STABS TREATY TO DEATH

Disloyal "House of Lords" Kill Peace Pact and the Republican Party and Adjourn—All Hope of the West Gone Glimmering—Strike and Other Wire News Condensed.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—The peace treaty of Versailles, rejected by the Senate, today sails the action of President Wilson. The next move must come from the White House.

At the close of one of the most dramatic sessions the Senate has ever seen, that body adjourned sine die after turning down the peace treaty.

The treaty with the Lodge majority reservations was defeated by a vote of 41 to 51.

After Congress meets on December 1 the President can withdraw the treaty and send it back to the Senate. It can then be recommitment to the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, where it can be held until an agreement by which it would be ratified substantially with the majority reservations is reached.

"The treaty will remain dead in the Senate unless our reservations are adopted," Senator Lodge, majority leader, said.

"I think the Republicans have worked themselves into an awkward position," Senator Hitchcock, the minority leader, said.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—President Wilson has decided to reserve comment on the defeat of the peace treaty until he sends his message to the regular session of Congress, opening December 1, it was learned authoritatively at the White House this afternoon.

HAND OF WILSON IN SHIP STRIKE

A conference looking toward a settlement of the shipyard strike is being held today between representatives of the unions on strike and Gavin McNab, recognized as the personal representative of President Wilson.

The utmost secrecy is being maintained relative to the conference. No one would admit that such a conference was even being considered.

However, it is known that this morning officers of the Bay Cities Metal Trades Council and the strike conference committee of that organization went into conference with Gavin McNab. It is also known that the conference was called by McNab to discuss possible terms of settlement of the strike which has tied up the shipyards and metal trades shops of the San Francisco bay district for the past seven weeks.

HYPODERMICALLY

We are now getting to be habitual vbrates. It's now up to Germany to pay the fiddler for jazz. The first national bank was a stocking leg. The brewers are now investing in lawsuits. The dough-boy is worthy of more dough. People used to think the sedan chair was a burst of speed. It's cheaper to pay pin money than alimony. Europe now has more daughters of the Revolution than we have. Jesse James also had a lively band of Bolsheviks while they lasted. Anybody that is quiet nowadays is in a class by himself. When one woman kisses another that is doing a man's work.

U. S. S. CALIFORNIA LAUNCHED YESTERDAY

That the U. S. S. "California" did stick in the mud is perhaps true, but is more gloriously true that all California heard with a shout that she was ready to slip her bonds and slide into the water of the bay, the namesake of the state and the largest ship of our navy, the flagship. It was more joyously true that no bounds could hold the mighty hull, when she began to slip into the water. Then great cables smoked in their effort to keep her back, and all snapped off with a sound like the firing of a volley in their uselessness. It was more justly true that all the men who have been working for months to bring the pride of California to the launching point should ride out in her, swing the ropes to the tugs that pulled her back into the channel and turn her round. The tsate has never seen a fairer day for such a festivity, and never have the military band and the workmen's band of Mare Island played gayer fairer tunes at the baptism of a ship.

Everybody on the island felt a personal pride in the big ship. They stopped strangers and lunched them to tell of the size of the armament, the electric drive, and they all smiled at the achievement that places Mare Island in the first rank as the mother of a dreadnought. In the language of the sailor boys—"Some Ship!"

MANY ANSWER CALL FOR SERVICE

Community Service Committee Formed—37 Representative Citizens Answer Call—Recreational Activities Planned—Harmony With All Existing Activities Sought—No Duplication Desired.

Thirty-seven of Richmond's most representative men and women met last night at the Chamber of Commerce rooms and organized a Community Service Committee, electing Hiram A. Jacobs as chairman, Lynn B. Williams as secretary and appointing Frank Geritz as assistant secretary.

An enthusiastic reception was given to the idea of community service, as explained by the secretary, and a program was outlined and committees appointed for work along the lines that seem most feasible in recreational activities.

These lines of work have been decided upon after a careful survey of the conditions in the city and of its needs, and great pains have been taken by the secretary that there shall be no overlapping of effort, or duplication of the work of any existing organizations.

As the gathering was the largest that has ever come together for one purpose in Richmond, it was felt by all present that from its meeting could go forth a spirit of community helpfulness that would be for the benefit of the city for all the years to come.

The committee made known the fact that it's interest contemplated the community welfare and pledged its support and co-operation to the Community Council, City Planning Commission, the officials of the municipal government and all churches without regard to denomination or creed, to the Chamber of Commerce, to the Arts Club, to the various veterans organizations, to the Boy Scouts, to the Y. M. C. A., to the Red Cross, to the Y. M. I., to the Y. L. I., to the manufacturers and employers of labor, to the Labor Council, to the individual working men's organizations, to the Building Trades Council and to every individual in the community in any and every way which it can serve to link the leisure time of the people in the community to the facilities which we now have or which we may have at any future time.

It advocated the establishment of play grounds under competent supervision, by trained play ground directors. It also advocated the use of such play grounds during the hours not occupied by the children, by the adults of the community and suggested to the City Planning Commission that in their plan for play grounds there be provision for neighborhood gatherings and adult activities. The following committees were named by the chairman: Executive—T. A. Carlson, T. H. Delap, Rev. T. A. Boyer, James E. Zumwalt, Miss Myrtle Pearce, J. C. Thornton, Hiram Jacobs, Mrs. J. C. Gerlack, Mrs. C. R. Blake, Frank Geritz, Asst. Secy. Boys Work—Chief W. N. Wood, Fire Chief Lemoine, Dr. C. E. Blake, H. W. Garrard, Dr. Clara Spaulding, z. J. Crandall. Adult Recreation—J. A. Miller, J. C. Thornton, Walter Mead. Finance—George Lee, Larkin Younce, J. F. Brooks, W. L. Ballinger, C. S. Downing, A. C. Faris, Lambert Wierda, A. G. Papadakis. Community Celebrations—A. C. Faris, Mrs. A. B. Ledgerwood, Mrs. C. R. Blake. Lectures, Etc.—Miss Nora Ashfield, Lambert Wierda, Mrs. Cunningham, Harry Marcus, C. S. Renwick.

MICKIE SAYS

HIGH SCHOOL MEMBERS AID POOR STUDENTS

There has been in High School for a long time a box, which was called the Hope Chest, in which the Faculty deposited money to be used to help those students who, without this aid, would be forced to leave school. With the advent of the war the chest became empty, while the money was diverted to the needs of the war.

All High School teachers and students gave gladly to the Red Cross and other organizations during the war, but now it is time for them to pick up their local work, where they dropped it, and help those people in town who are in need.

To this end, Mr. Tucker has proposed that they organize a Junior Social Service Bureau in the Richmond School District. The general plan is as follows:

A Board of Directors shall consist of all the principals of schools within the Richmond School District.

The objects of the organization shall be to teach the children a sense of social obligation, a proper spirit of directed philanthropy, to deny themselves that others may benefit and to render to these in need such service as is needed to keep them in school and to provide the proper nourishment.

Funds may be raised by gift, by school entertainments of any sort. There shall be deposited in The First National Bank of Richmond, paid out by check drawn and signed by the Secretary and countersigned by the President.

Goods and supplies shall be purchased only on requisition issued by the President.

Request should come through the Principal or the School Nurse, but may come through any teacher for requisition.

Local Milk Dealers Reduce Their Prices

By a simple system of rebates the Richmond Creamery and the Eagle Creamery have worked out a plan whereby customers may get their milk at a reduced rate.

Under this plan, which goes into effect on December 1, a rebate, which will be allowed on monthly accounts alone, and not to single purchasers at the stores of the two companies.

Before making a decision on the application of the Richmond-San Francisco Ferry Company to issue $800,000 in stock to finance the proposed ferry from Ellis landing to San Francisco, the State Railroad Commission will send its own engineers and investigators here to look over the objections made by Attorney E. S. Pillsbury against the issuance of the permit.

Y.M.C.A. WILL OPEN DRIVE NOV. 30

Completes Plans For Promotion of Campaign Fund—Large Committee Selected—Local Pulpit Oratory To Further Organization—Constitutional Activities Planned—$600 Sought.

At two well attended meetings of the Y. M. C. A. committee held at its offices in the Berry building, Nov. 19 and 20, final details were adopted for the furtherance of its campaign.

The drive will begin Sunday, Nov. 30th, when capable speakers furnished by the State Y. M. C. A. committee will speak at the various pulpits of the city at the morning services.

Active solicitation will continue on December 1, 2 and 3, winding up December 4. Six thousand dollars is the goal set and no difficulty is expected in raising this amount. This will suffice to maintain and develop the work which is progressing with excellent results.

The promotion committee consists of the regular Y. M. C. A. executive committee enlarged by the addition of other representative citizens and its personnel is as follows: E. H. Harlow, W. T. Helms, H. G. Stidham, F. E. Beck, H. W. Lunceford, C. E. Clark, F. H. Heckman, D. J. Hall, P. M. Sanford, Dr. W. M. Bullock, Mayor J. N. Long, E. M. Tilden, Rev. Paul Little, H. A. Johnston, F. B. Lamorne, H. A. Stiver, C. J. Cray, C. S. Downing and F. S. Newsome.

The officers are P. M. Sanford, chairman; Dr. W. M. Bullock, secy.; F. S. Beck, treas.; George Kline, fin. secy.; Walter J. Mead, ex-secy.

A small campaign executive committee consisting of H. A. Johnston, C. E. Clark, W. T. Helms, H. W. Lunceford and E. H. Harlowe will manage the campaign and various sub-committees will have charge of various aspects of the work. Mr. T. S. Newsome will serve as publicity manager.

Building plans will be held in obedience for such a time as we consider opportune and pending also the development of certain plans that we are working out.

ADELINE PEYANT IS NOW MRS. GLOVER

Miss Adeline Bryant was married last night by Rev. Paul Little to Truman H. Glover at the home of her parents, 542 Fifth street. She was attended by her sister, Mrs. Miller of Idaho, and the groom was accompanied by his brother. Only immediate friends and relatives were present.

The bridal party stood under a wedding bell of chrysanthemums for the ring ceremony. After the wedding a sumptuous supper was served and the young people left for a wedding tour, their destination being kept secret. Plans for their future residence have not been made.

Mrs. Glover has become well known in Richmond through several years of residence here. She attended the high school and has been working for the Santa Fe. Glover is employed by the Standard Oil company, and is known as an Elk.

J. H. Lee of Richmond has received a letter stating that his son Joe, now an officer of the U. S. navy, has reached New York after service with the North Sea mine-sweeping squadron.

MARTINEZ OPTIMISM

To pay $415 for a barrel of water, was the experience of a Martinez merchant, proprietor of a "soft drink" emporium. The man was approached recently by a resident of Antioch who gave him a sample of whisky and asked him if he would like to purchase a barrel. Nothing loath the merchant drove to Antioch yesterday and asked permission to tap the barrel. This was done and the quality of the whisky drawn therefrom was excellent. The price was $450 but the buyer paid $415 and agreed to remit the balance. Upon arrival here he again tapped the barrel and found it contained just plain water. "Well, any way," he said, "I still owe that guy $35." Which is by way of being the height of optimism.—Standard.

TWO FAMOUS PLAYS TO BE READ TONIGHT

"The Twelve-Pound Look," by James M. Barrie, and "The Rising Moon," by Lady Gregory will be read by Mrs. Marian L. Stebbins of the faculty of Mills College, at the Presbyterian church tonight, under the auspices of the Men's club of that church.

Mrs. Stebbins shares in the high reputation of all the instructors at Mills college, of whose ability the city of Richmond has had evidence in the two lectures that have already been given in the course.

Imagine that day in your career when everything went wrong just when everything seemed to be superlatively right. In the case of the hero of "The Twelve-Pound Look," it was a woman who did the mischief. She came in his great hour and told him she did not admire him. Hear Mrs. Stebbins tell the story and find out how the title fits the play.

Two policemen, a sergeant and a ragged man are the characters of Lady Gregory's play, "The Rising Moon." It is a story of Ireland, told with that author's characteristic gentle whimsicality with a warm-hearted laugh at the end for its humanness.

START A CHECKING ACCOUNT

Everyone should have a checking account. It is convenient as well as practical to pay bills by check, thus avoiding the risk of carrying money, or leaving it home where it might be stolen. Then, too, it prevents any dispute as to whether you have paid a bill. It is the only way to obtain a receipt that you take no chance of losing. Whether the account is large or small the same courteous treatment is accorded all.

"LOST MANHOOD"

In looking out into the darkness of the night
as this is penned, it seems as though the skies should be painted a crimson, bloody-looking red,
for such they are figuratively, if not literally,
and much of the ground of the world is so literally.

We used to write of the Fatherhood of God and the Brotherhood of man, and tried to teach it and preach it and live it, but now it seems like a hopeless task. The Fatherhood of God is here yet, but the people of the earth have shut their eyes and ears and closed their minds to His Fatherhood. They have two other Fatherhoods now—that of the Devil and in The Almighty Dollar.

Since the awful war overspread all the earth
we have lost a great deal of faith in our fellow man, and think less of him than we did. A very large percentage of him has shown that he is unworthy even of redemption. If there is no hell, then there ought to be, for there are millions of greedy, grasping, dishonest and dishonorable hounds in human shape who deserve little else than damnation and punishment.

We have lost faith in the Brotherhood of Man.
There is no such thing. The Fatherhood of God, the teachings of Christ and the Brotherhood of Man weigh up very lightly nowadays when balanced in the scales against human selfishness and greed for power, luxury and the riches of sordid gold.

A GREAT STEP FORWARD

A recent Sunday paper had a half page illustration, showing the distillers firing their whisky bottles over the breastworks at all mankind, and in the background the poorhouses, penitentiaries and insane asylums created and kept up by the traffic in liquor. It told an awful but very true story. Now that the distilleries have been put out of business by the United States government, and no more of the accursed stuff is to be manufactured, the country has taken a great step forward in civilization, morality and right, and it will never step back into the mess and wrong doing it was in before. Now the illicit distillers are springing up, and "moonshiners" will be plentiful, but by the time a few of them land in the penitentiaries
they have builded for others, it will be different.

The nation has broken and forever destroyed the big whisky cannon. The best friend of the poorhouse, the asylum, the penitentiary and the morgue, is at least no longer the partner of the United States Government.

Never again will this nation in consideration of millions of dollars, permit wholesale and retail poisoning of citizens, and ruin of families.

Out of the war has come whisky's end. And no matter what the war costs, or what lives it takes, it will cost less and it will kill fewer than whisky would have cost and killed, had it continued its reign in this country.

GIVE US A REST

While this scribe is patriotic, and all that sort of thing, and as a general rule would a little rather fight than not, there is a limit to all things, and we are beginning to get gorged on all this war stuff, and would like a few days rest and respite. We want to see old Kaiser Bill get hanged, and kings and queens, princes and dukes and ducks everywhere tumbled into the garbage can of civilization where they belong, and we want to help the Red Cross and the Boy Scouts and Y. M. C. A. and the Y. W. C. A. and the W. C. T. U. and every other A. B. C. D. and X. Y. Z., except the I. W. W., but our head aches, and back aches and pocketbook is flattened out like a cold wheat pancake, and when we give all the space in the paper for free advertising for all these A. B. C. D's, to the neglect of the ordinary advertiser who pays for it, the printers and paper houses are not willing to share half the expenses and donate their bills and wages. They ought to, but somehow they don't.

And we see so much bunting and badges and buttons and red, white and blue that we're getting color blind and razzle-dazzled, and see pin-wheels all night and hear drums all day. We would like to get away into the everlasting hills for a few weeks, where there is nothing to see but God's blue sky and green trees and somber rocks, and nothing to hear but the sigh of the breeze through the pines, the tumbling of the brook over the boulders and the song of the birds.

Probably we should say how grand and glorious all the war business is, even that it is supposed to be over, and shout long and loud until we need Brown's Bronchial Troches, like so many of our good friends and neighbors do, but we have done so until there is a whole family of frogs in our throat, and we feel like spitting a mouthful of them out. Let's sign the treaty and get down to work and sanity once more.

A little way to go.

Some men go into politics for the same reason that other people feel of wet paint.

All things will come if you wait, but those who go after them will beat your time.

Religious freedom is a fine thing. But now and then a lot of hell is raised in its name.

Because you ought to make good is no sign you will, unless you learn to work. Some people learn everything but that.

Don't deplore your bitter pill of misfortune too much, for it may stir up your ire and ambition and result in success.

The reason most of us are poor: Some days it's so hard to lay up a cent, and on others it's equally as difficult to find a cent to lay up.

Sometimes an agreement is reached because there isn't a club in convenient reaching distance.

No matter what college a man attended, his wife is apt to play quite a part in finishing his education.

The man who reads the Bible merely to get material for a street corner argument is a nuisance.

It is all right to cover the peaches in the window with pink mosquito bar, but those in the street parade should wear more.

There is considerable rejoicing when a swindler gets swindled, but it doesn't happen often enough to add greatly to the gaiety of the nation.

Of course the men think women have the easiest time, but you probably never encountered
a man who wished he were a woman.

A correspondence school in dancing probably would have the smallest attendance; there are times when the student wants to get close to his work.

The Fort Worth Record attributes William Z.
Foster's "syndicalist" views to the circumstance that he was born in the slums. That won't do.
Lenine is not a slummer. Trotsky isn't. Johann Most wasn't. You will have to explain the apostles of anarchy upon some other theory.

Senator Reed of Missouri argues that it is foolish to attempt reducing the high cost of living because it is the result of the operation of natural laws. So is drowning when a man falls into deep water—but really he should exert himself to overcome the law, and not wait for "nature to take her course."

With drives at the right of us, uplifters at the left of us, propagandists on top of us and leagues all around, where in blazes are we at?
Not less than a million tax-eating, non-producing,
salary-drawing parasites ought to be either squashed like a bedbug or drafted into real work.

BERT LYTELL IN TRAIL TO YESTERDAY

A rescue from treacherous quicksands is one of the exciting feats performed by Bert Lytell in his initial Metro All-Star Series picture, "The Trail to Yesterday," which will be shown at the Richmond Theatre today.

This picturization of Charles Alden Seltzer's novel of the rugged West is replete with thrilling situations. For the success of this rescue scene, the co-operation of Anna Q. Nilsson, Mr. Lytell's leading lady was necessary. Fortunately, Miss Nilsson insisted on carrying out each detail of the hazardous proceeding, declaring that a sense of fear as left out of her make-up. Bert Lytell accomplishes this rescue with a lariat, showing his skill in the art of throwing a lasso.

Local Laconics Of Richmondites

Richmond residents who realize the need of recreational work for young women in their city are taking a great deal of interest in the newspaper drive that is going on to raise money for a class in gymnastics. They are collecting newspapers to put out on the sidewalk Saturday morning. The club has 127 members.

Walter B. Thompson, 55, San Francisco, and Lola J. MacWay, 55, of Richmond, were granted a license to marry in Oakland yesterday.

Mrs. Lola MacWay Offermann was granted a divorce from John Offermann Tuesday on the charge of desertion.

H. G. Stidham spent Thursday in San Francisco on business.

To avoid hitting another automobile at Twenty-third and Clinton streets yesterday afternoon, G. J. Lambrecht turned his coal delivery truck aside and crashed into a telegraph pole, with slight damages to his truck, but with quite a catastrophe to the pole.

With its characteristic civic-mindedness, the committee in church of the concert to be given at the Christian church this evening, have postponed the affair to a later date, not yet determined, in order to give Richmond residents an opportunity to attend the many other affairs that have been planned for that evening.

K. R. Bell and H. E. Larson have formed a partnership for the purpose of conducting a garage to be known as the Commercial Garage.

The first grand ball of the Bay Cities Dancing club will be held Saturday evening at East Shore Park.

Miss Carrie Oakley and George Long, who are to be married in the near future, were given a surprise shower last night at Miss Oakley's home, 537 Sixth street.

CHARGED WITH FORGERY
HIS BAIL IS $2000

A man popularly known as J. T. Burton, but carrying many aliases was arraigned in Judge Odell's court yesterday morning on the charge of passing several fictitious checks. His bail was fixed at $2000 and he was taken to the county jail to await his preliminary trial.

Burton was found working as a plumber in a San Francisco hotel under the name of Bruce Emerson. He had stolen the check book that he used from the Richmond-San Rafael Ferry company.

WESLEY CHURCH BAZAAR
WILL BE HELD TODAY

Wesley M. E. Church, corner Ninth and Nevins avenue, will open its doors today at 2 o'clock to the general public in a bazaar for which the ladies have worked long and faithfully. The church is noted for its famous cooks. Try their Home Cooked Food and delicious candy.

A short program will be given at 8 o'clock. Ice cream, coffee and cake will be served afternoon and evening. Fancy articles of all kinds are on sale. Do your Christmas shopping here.

ARCHIE CAMPBELL AND ALMA DUBBERS WED

Mrs. Alma Dubbers of Stege was married yesterday morning to Archie H. Campbell, superintendent of the California Cap works, at the home of D. W. Calfee. Members of the immediate family alone were present.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hoffman of Stege. After a short honeymoon Mr. and Mrs. Campbell will return to Richmond to live.

BOYS! BOYS! BOYS!

Chief of Police Wood is bursting with a wonderful secret for all boys of Richmond from 10 to 14 years old. He can hardly wait to tell it to you. It is something for you to do to help him out.

Come in and register at 322 Sixth street just as soon as you can. He can use 100 boys. 500 would be better.

Try to register before Saturday. No matter where you live, he wants you.

Policemen who have been stationed to watch the speed of the Southern Pacific trains crossing at Twenty-third street, report that they are complying with the ordinance passed by the city council, ordering them to slow down at that crossing.

About thirty Richmond people Mrs. W. A. Warbuton has just returned from a visit of three days to her parents in Modesto. She and her husband are entertaining Charles Arnold of Susanville, formerly a student at the Western Union here, and at present in charge of the Susanville office.

The ladies of the San Pablo Baptist church gave a chicken dinner last evening and while business prevented our being present, much to our regret, we know those who were fortunate enough to attend must have had both a good time and a good dinner, for that is always the case when those ladies give either a dinner or an entertainment.

Jones, Garfinkle, Egan and Reed are all having sales in their several lines just now, to make room for the coming holiday displays, and are slaughtering prices in a manner which must be especially pleasing to the ladies.

The A. Odell who wrote a communication for the News for last issue is not Judge Odell, but his father. And he will have something more to say about it later on, as will many other people.

At the Yeomen 50-50 Whist Party held last night at Pythian Castle, L. Turzich won the first prize with a score of 160. Another game will be played about the middle of January. R. L. Kohr headed the committee last night.

Richmond Rebekahs and Odd Fellows were entertained by the Rebekahs at Bank Hall last night with a whist party, following a carefully selected program under the direction of Mrs. Myrtle Scheubler.

Resolution adopted by the grand lodge of the B. P. O. Elks at Atlantic City express the stand of that order upon all anti-American doctrines and pledge the lodge to the support of true American ideals.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—President Wilson will make no move to rescind the wartime prohibition act until peace has been declared formally, it was stated officially today at the White House.

MINERS AND BARONS STILL FAR APART

DES MOINES, Ia., Nov. 20.—Governor W. L. Harding prepared messages today to governors of other coal producing states suggesting a conference at which the question of concerted action toward resumption of mining under state control would be discussed.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—An increase in wages of 15 cents per ton and 20 per cent over the existing day scale, to become effective immediately if the bituminous coal miners return to work was offered by the operators at the meeting today of the wage scale committee in the central competitive bituminous field.

In announcing the offer, Thomas T. Brewster, chairman of the operators' wage scale committee, said the operators had proposed the existing working conditions be continued and that the contract be operative until March 31, 1922. John L. Lewis, acting president of the United Mine Workers of America, declared the increase was totally inadequate, adding that the miners had not assumed the offer had been made seriously. The operators, he said, had proposed increases in the price of miners' supplies, which would absorb practically all the wage advance.

Nothing was said about reduced hours, although the miners had demanded a three-hour week.

ARTS CLUB PRESIDENT NAMES EXECUTIVE COM.

An executive committee for the Arts Club was named recently by the president, Frank Geritz, consisting of Miss Norah McNeill, Mrs. A. W. Krundick, Mrs. Billie Brown, L. M. Fowler, Mrs. W. E. Cunningham, Mrs. Kate Smith, Percival Neale and Miss Nettie Windrem.

This committee will meet tonight at 6:30 at the studio of the president to complete plans for a New Year's eve jinks.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH FORMS EVERYMAN'S CLUB

A club of the nature of an open forum was organized Wednesday night by the men of the First Christian church, E. J. Crandall being elected president and W. A. Boone, secretary.

Designed to be supplementary to the Y. M. C. A. and the Community Council, the organization invites all men of any denomination to discuss topics of current interest of every nature, under the name of Everyman's Club.

Meetings will be held in the social hall of the church on the third Wednesday of each month. There are to be no dues.

Your are the only one who can attend to your home

And your home, your family, is your first duty. You should not, therefore, do things outside your home which someone else can do better and cheaper than you can yourself.

We are thinking especially of excessive grocery "shopping" and carrying home a heavy basket. There's no need for you to rob your home of your attention by doing these things, because at our store we do them for you.

We do your grocery shopping by carrying only the best products and selling them to you at fair honest prices. And we send them home for you because we believe we can perform this service cheaper and better, and certainly more satisfactorily than you can do it for yourself.

We are service grocers. We believe that being grocers means something more than just having things for sale.

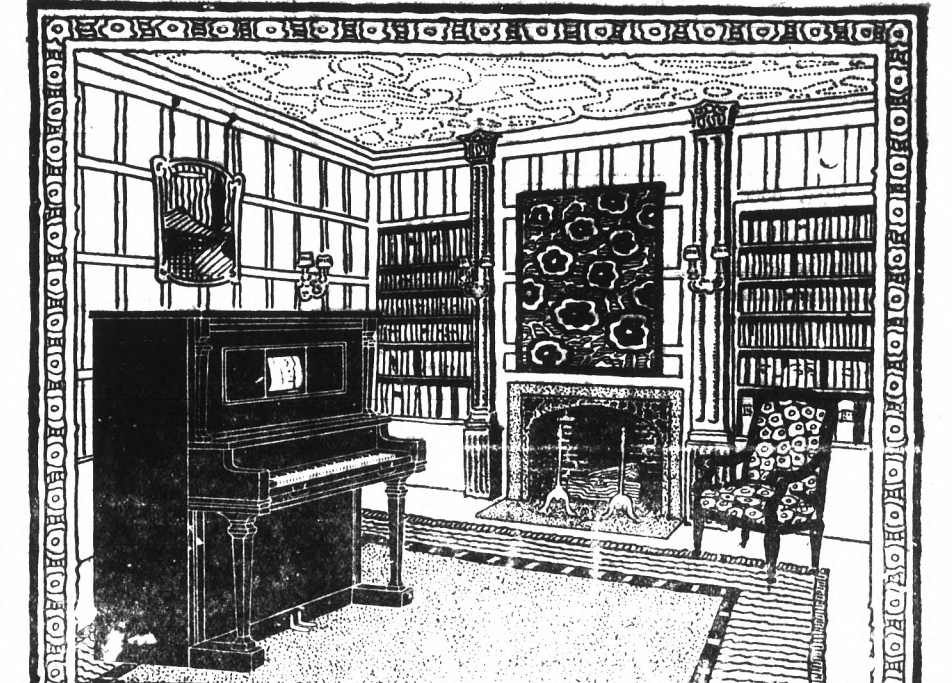

Part of our service consists in telling you about the good things we have discovered in our "Shopping for you."

For example there's RYZON Baking Powder. We recommend RYZON because it is the scientific product of a great chemical organization; because after testing it in our own homes we find it to be truly economical and thoroughly efficient. It is 40 cents per pound—and if you haven't the RYZON Baking Book ask about it at once.

Marvelous Duo Art Brings Concert Pianists Into Your Home

The Duo Art brings the Concert Pianist into intimate contact with the people in their homes—he now becomes a part of their daily lives instead of remaining the casual stranger of the concert hall. This marvelous instrument actually reproduces the playing of the great pianistic artists with such absolute fidelity and naturalness that trained musicians cannot distinguish between the playing of the instrument and that of the artist himself.

Just think of these great artists who will play for you in your own home—Padrewski, Ganz, Bauer, Gabrilowitch, Hofmann, Grainger, Ligniska, Byrd, Novae, Carreno and scores of others.

Don't overlook the fact that the Duo Art is also a very fine Pianola, with improved and exclusive tone and expression devices—you can yourself play any musical composition you desire—play it according to your own ideas of expression. The Duo Art may also be played from the keyboard in the usual manner—it is a beautiful pianoforte—either a Steinway, Weber, Steck or Stroud.

We Cordially Invite You to Come In and Hear Your Favorite Artist Play on the Marvelous Duo Art.
